KOU - Hong Kong's First Lifestyle Concept Boutique

KOU Hong Kong's First Lifestyle Concept Boutique

Overview: Creating harmony in one's lifestyle is at the essence of the KOU philosophy. Every detail of lifestyle should reveal a passion, an experience, and a sense of one's style.

Hong Kong-based lifestyle guru and interior designer, Louise Kou (known to her friends as Lu Kou) opens KOU, an original Lifestyle Concept Boutique in the heart of Hong Kong.

KOU offers customers an opportunity to stylize their home and themselves. Accessories from chinaware to silverware, lamps to linens, fashion accessories and clothes to sexy lingerie are all part of the inventory. Each of the unique household items is hand-picked or designed by Lu Kou, as is the spatial and interior design of the boutique.

Customers can purchase pieces individually or as a complete home lifestyle concept.

Design Overview: KOU is uniquely designed as a chic and luxurious mansion.

The open floor plan of the entrance level showcases the lounge, dining area, kitchen and outdoor patio in a palette of aubergine and silver. Walk down the sensational inner staircase into the warm reds and browns of the library and bedroom with ensuite bath and walk-in closet. Sweeping views of the harbour complement the interior design elements.

Opening Date: June 2005
